ENJOYING THE LITTLE THINGS

Blessed is the man who can enjoy the little things, the common beauties, the little day-by-day events....sunshine on the fields, birds on the bough, breakfast, dinner, supper, the daily paper on the porch, or the mail in the mail box,.....a friend passing by.....So many people who go looking for enjoyment leave it behind them at home.

GRATITUDE

Gratitude is the gateway to graciousness, the pathway to politeness, the threshold of thoughtfulness, and the cornerstone of courtesy. Express gratitude generously and sincerely; receive gratitude humbly and graciously, expect gratitude rarely. Gratitude can transform common days into thanksgiving, turn routine jobs into joy, and change ordinary opportunities into blessings. A complaining tongue reveals an ungrateful heart. An attitude of gratitude is a never-ending prayer.

PERSPECTIVE

While our children are young, we work so hard to teach them values. But, then, they grow like the seed in the Gospel; they enter a world of dangerous weeds. Respect the power of the weeds by taking the time to know the TV shows, magazines and song lyrics of the culture your children are exposed to. Only then can we 'clear the land' and reinforce our values as a counter balance.

CHURCH ATTENDANCE

Do we apply the same standards of faithfulness to our Church that we expect in other areas of life?

- * If your car starts one of three times, do you think it is faithful?
- * If the paperboy skips the Monday and Thursday editions, aren't they missed?
- * If you fail to come to work four or five times a month....does your employer call you faithful?
- * If your refrigerator quits for a day now and then, do you excuse it by saying, "Oh, it works most of the time."
- * If you miss two out of twelve mortgage payments a year, does the bank say, "Well, ten out of twelve isn't bad"?

PUNCH LINE:

If you fail to worship God in Church, one, two, or more Sundays a month, can you be called faithful???? If we expect faithfulness from other people and things...does not God expect the same....and more...from us, His people?

PRAYER FOR THE MORNING

Whatever comes my way today, I ask the Grace to bear it, to keep it to myself if bad, and if it is good to share it.
