AS I CLOSE THE DOOR

Dear Lord, as I close the door on the old year, I ponder the things I've done...the things I've said and the joys I've had. I wonder, have I lost or won? I've thought of new friends I have made, and the old ones, staunch and true...the paths of the old year made easier, Lord, because I have walked them with you. I think of all the many times, when my burdens were so heavy to bear, and how my faith slipped away from me. But somehow you were always there. Now, as I open the door to this New Year, and carefully peek inside, I wonder what it holds for me... but I'll throw the door open wide. Whatever it brings to me and mine, I'll meet it with a heart so true...I know that, Lord, what 'er it may be, you'll be there to carry me through.

NEW YEAR CAN BEGIN ANYTIME

One November we ordered a new car, which did not arrive until the new year. As we cleaned out the old car, I muttered, "How did we accumulate so much junk?" We sorted through old maps, dried-up ballpoint pens, outdated addresses and loose coins.

We made unwavering resolutions about keeping this new car clean, orderly and functioning properly. Thinking about resolutions, I sensed a connection between a new car and a new year. The first order of business is to clear out the clutter, discard the useless, remove the dust and dirt. Begin fresh.

A new year can begin anytime in our lives. We can sort through old attitudes, clean our minds of envy, toss out the habits of gossip and carrying grudges. We can resolve to keep our promises and curb our anger.

I stood back and surveyed the fresh, shiny car. Yes, a new year could begin anytime or any place.

MY RESOLUTION

I won't look back; God knows the fruitless effort, I'll leave them all with him who blots the record, and mercifully forgives and then forgets.

I won't look forward; God sees all the future, the road that, short or long, will lead me home, and he will face with me its every trial and bear with me the burdens that may come.

But I'll look up into the face of Jesus, for there my heart can rest, my fears are stilled; and there is joy and love, and light for darkness, and perfect peace, and every hope fulfilled.

NEW YEAR PRAYER

For the New Year, I would wish to have strength enough to battle with difficulties and overcome them; love enough to move me to be useful and helpful to others; faith enough to make real the things of God. And hope enough to remove all anxious fears concerning the future.
