LETTER TO DAD

There are so many things I'd like to tell you face to face; I either lack the words or fail to find the time or place. But in this special letter, Dad, you'll find, at least in part, the feelings that the passing years have left within my heart. The memories of childhood days and all that you have done to make our happy home a happy place and growing up such fun. I still recall the walks we took, the games we often played; those confidential chats we had while resting in the shade. This letter comes to thank you, Dad, for needed words of praise; the counsel and the guidance, too, that shaped my grown-up days. No words of mine can tell you, Dad, the things I really feel; but you must know my love for you is lasting, warm and real. You made my world a better place and through the coming years, I'll keep these memories of you as cherished souvenirs!

MY DAD

When I was just a little boy no more than just a lad, I met a lot of special men but none quite like my dad. Though other men would often hear the things I'd have to say, none could listen with their heart in Dad's very special way. I love to think of all the things he used to say and do, and how I felt down in my heart I want to be like you. If I could be just half the man my father was to me, what a great example I would be for all the world to see. The world would see a man who tried to never fail the test, who never faltered in his quest to always do his best. They'd see a man who loved his God through times both good and bad, what a man I'd be if I could live my life just like my dad.

LITANY FOR FATHER'S DAY

Mender of toys, Leader of boys, Changer of fuses, Kisser of bruises, Bless Him, Dear Lord.
Wiper of noses, Pruner of roses, Singer of songs, Righter of wrongs, Guide Him, O Lord.
Mover of couches, Soother of ouches, Pounder of nails, Teller of tales, Reward Him, O Lord.

OBLIGATION OF FATHERS

It is all right and proper for the children to observe Father's Day, as we have continued to do while our father was living and has since passed on to glory many years ago. However, we wish to emphasize to living fathers that they have an obligation to their children which begins at the time of their birth and ends only at the time of the father's death.

Children are imitators. To them what they hear father say and see father do becomes their pattern of life.

Father ought not to do anything, or indulge in any habit or practice which he would not wish his sons or daughters to do. They get their first and most impressive lessons at home.

May the blessings and love of Our Heavenly Father be yours in abundance this Father's Day and always!
