TO MY MOM ON MOTHER'S DAY

Why was it that you never liked to let me stay out late? Why was it that you'd always worry when I'd go on a date? Why was it that we'd always argue and yell and cry and fight? Why was it that I always thought that you were never right? Why was it always hard to show respect and love? Knowing that you always prayed for me to God above. Why, my dearest mother, did I have to make you sad? What is that special knowledge that mother's always had? Well, now I have the answers...ten years down the road. The weight of worry for my children is such a heavy load. Yes, even though they're little and quickly growing older; I know they're much like me; independent; getting bolder. So even though the time has passedand miles between us too, there's something I must say....and this is just for you: Thank you, Mom, for caring and for being brave. The tears you must have shed!...throughout my teen-age days. Thank you for your prayers, the worry and concern. Thanks for your persistence and for wanting me to learn. For being the kind of mother that you thought you should be. But thank you most of all, Mom, for not giving up on me!

MOTHER....A BLESSING

A Mother is a blessing...so gentle, kind, and wise. She's the first to give encouragement, the last to criticize...The one you know will be there, whenever skies are gray...the First to lend a helping hand, the last to turn away...Each special thing about her is so lovely to recall....

A MOTHER IS A BLESSING, THE MOST PRECIOUS OF ALL!

MOTHERHOOD

I've watched my daughter and son grow to be a fine young woman and a fine young man now and through it all many times I have asked God, "How?" How do I know if I'm doing it right? How do I know if they're seeing the light? The training for Motherhood is sketchy at best....A baby is born and Mom's put to the test. So often there's no one to ask how it's done...Mom learns as she goes with her own little ones. I thank God today for the chances I've had to mold, with His help, the young lives in my hands. It's the job of a lifetime, being a Mother. And to serve God this way, who could want for another?

MOTHERS DAY PRAYER

"Our Father in Heaven Whose love is divine Thanks for the love of a mother like mine... And in thy great mercy look down from above and grant this dear mother the gift of YOUR LOVE... And all through the year, whatever betide her, assure her each day that you are beside her.... and Father in Heaven show me the way to lighten her tasks and brighten her day, and bless her dear heart with the insight to see that her love means more than the world to me."

MOTHERS

Hasten not the tender years of youth for in the blinking of an eye your babies will be grown. Hold them tight and long kiss them gently and often...Praise them lavishly. Encourage them always. Stand back far enough to let them grow and close enough to protect them. Let them rise each morning to your smile and retire each night secure in your love.
