FINDING STRENGTH

It is a wonderful thing that when we know our weakness, we find our strength. This discovery does not create weaklings, but people confident that life never takes them to a place where God is not. This is the birth of fortitude in our soul. It is a great moment in life when we no longer have to pretend to be stronger than we are. It is a great discovery when we find that we do not have to pretend, but can confess our own inadequacy in the knowledge that God holds us up and guides us through.

BIRTHDAYS

Count your garden by the flowers, never by the leaves that fall; count your days by the golden hours, don't remember clouds at all. Count the nights by stars, not shadows. Count your life by smiles, not tears, and with joy on every birthday, count your age by friends, not years.

ENJOYING LITTLE THINGS

Blessed is the man who can enjoy the little things, the common beauties, the little day by day events...sunshine on the fields, birds on the bough, breakfast, dinner, supper, the paper on the porch, or the mail in the mail box...a friend passing by. So many people who go afield for enjoyment leave it behind them right at home.

TO BE HAPPY

To live and be happy...to make others happy...to bring to flower and fruitage the intelligence that has been given us, these are great achievements that the humblest may accomplish. To make our little corner of the world a little better for our having lived in it, to foster the spirit of human brotherhood, is a life work well performed. No greater happiness can be found than that which comes from the sweet content of right thinking, right living, and a good conscience.

SHARING

Though we spend our entire lives in an attempt to gather to ourselves all the wealth and material riches which may come our way, still we have not lived.

TO LIVE...is to serve, and to serve is to share; to share is to reach out to a brother in need, and in so sharing, the gift is replaced with a measure added. It is the normal process, it is nature's way.

SEEDS OF LOVE...Grains of kindness are indeed very much like tiny seed: Scatter them where you go. For seeds of love will always grow.

A SMILE GOES A LONG WAY.....

SOMETIMES,

WHEN IT REALLY WOULD DO A LOT MORE GOOD AT HOME.
