OIL OF CHEERFULNESS

Cheerfulness removes rust from the mind, lubricates our inward machinery, and enables us to do our work with fewer creaks and groans. If people were universally cheerful, probably there wouldn't be half the quarreling or a tenth part of the wickedness there is.

Cheerfulness, too, promotes health and immortality. Cheerful people live longest here on earth, and afterwards, in our hearts.

TRY A LITTLE KINDNESS

There is a story of a man who was enjoying a stroll in a wooded area with his grandson when they came across a small turtle. The boy picked it up, and examined it, and tried to pry open its shell with a stick. He was not having much success.

"That will never get you anywhere," the grandfather remarked. "Bring the turtle along, and I'll show you a trick when we get home."

They returned to the house, and the man placed the turtle on the warm hearth before the fireplace. After awhile the turtle stuck out its head and feet, and began to crawl toward the boy. "Never try to force a fellow into doing anything," was the grandfather's observation. "Just warm him up with a little kindness and he'll probably respond." There is definitely something here for all of us.

Perhaps there are people in our neighborhood, people with whom we work, or even close relatives who are not friendly toward us, and sometime they are even downright antagonistic toward us. Maybe grandad's idea would work on them too. Just do your Christian thing, as the young people say. Warm your cool neighbor up with a cheerful smile, a complimentary word, or a kind act, and he will probably respond.

SHARE YOUR SMILE

A smile costs nothing, but creates much. It happens in a flash, but the memory of it lasts forever. It cannot be begged, borrowed, or stolen, but it is of no earthly good to anyone until it is given away. So, if in a hurry, you meet someone who is too weary to smile, leave one of yours, for no one needs a smile so much as he who has none to give.

PEACE IN GOD

There is a Rock the earthquake cannot shake. There is a Light the shadows cannot hide. There is a Heart that sorrow cannot break. There is a Friendship that is true and tried, and though I walk the valley dark and grim, God's Word is sure; I shall have peace in Him.

PRAYER FOR TIME OF SORROW

God of compassion, when our hearts are filled with sorrow, when our minds are wondering with questions, how often you come to us with an assurance that we are in your presence. It may not give us the answers we hunger for, but it is what we need to make it through the moment.
